She and Ruth attended the December 2nd meeting at the Park District concerning a new facility with possible senior services. Michael Bram told her that the money is in the city budget for Ride DuPage and it was subsequently supported by the council at its next meeting. Cathy introduced Betsy, who may present for a senior conversation in the future, and who has an interest in possibly joining the commission.

She received an email from Prairie State Legal Services about a low income Elmhurst resident, Nelson Ortiz, who lives on Myrtle. Per the Prairie State bylaws one board member must reflect their client base. The Senior Commission was asked to endorse this candidate.
