The EDC meeting was Called to Order at 8:35 a.m.

The EDC Minutes of June 22, 2018 could not be approved due to a lack of a quorum. They will be on the agenda of the EDC's August 24, 2018 meeting.

There were no public comments.

Bill Shanklin introduced our meeting host, Bob Platt, and Bob provided a brief introduction to Mostardi-Platt's business scope. Forty-two years in the environmental consulting/testing industry. Current locations in Elmhurst, Chicago, Denver, Charlotte and Minneapolis. Bob offered to conduct a tour following the meeting for anyone interested.

Ken Bartels indicated that he will be sending out another retention/business visits 'suggestion list' in early August.

Erin Jason provided updates on One95 Addison, FFC, Condos on the Hill, Aimco, American Dairy, Kids Drop-In, Fry the Coop and Maxine's. She also shared details regarding 183 N. Addison, Elmhurst-Chicago Stone and Patten. Erin also indicated to the EDC that she will be working soon on a business parks plan for the City and will seek EDC input.

John Quigley mentioned the Elmhurst Cycling Classic later today, July 27th and the upcoming New Teachers Luncheon on August 6. He also reported that the 'Elmhurst-Opoly' board games will be available next week and displayed a game for review. Bill mentioned the great success of the American Legion's hosting the re-introduction of 'Cool Cars' at their location. Rich Reichert mentioned that the City/College Commission is looking at hosting a ½ day conference on hiring and keeping millennial workers perhaps in the fall of this year.

The EDC was adjourned at 8:30 a.m.

Some members of the EDC then toured Mostardi-Platt.
